

HAUNTED PLYMOUTH

Halloween Ghost Walk:

S.I (uk) joined The Haunted Plymouth Halloween Ghost Walk, which proved to be a very successful event with a sell out group - a wide array of witches, goblins and a phantom monk to name a few joined us on the ghost walk, of course this was just the ghost walk participants!

An intriguing walk was had by all, with a number of the ghost walkers picking up and sensing relevant activity that has been witnessed on previous ghost walks, therefore adding to the spine chilling atmosphere experienced whilst strolling the ancient cobbled streets of Plymouth.

Paranormal Investigation at a Plymouth Guest House:

Following on from the Ghost Walk the Supernatural Investigations (uk) team took part in an all night vigil at a guest house located upon Plymouth's historic Hoe - there was no better time to carry out an all night vigil than on 'All Hollow's Eve' where it is believed that the veil between this world and the next is at it's thinnest...

The investigation team arrived just after 9pm and we set up all the technical equipment to prepare for our all night vigil at this reputedly haunted site.

The team had a very productive night, with the group's psychic picking up on some very prominent information that was confirmed as being relevant to the past and current apparent paranormal activity, experienced by the owner and her guests.

Other paranormal activity included phantom smells that appeared from nowhere, and a member of the team experiencing first hand the feeling of being touched on the arm, to another having their clothing pulled quite erratically by an invisible force.

Cold spots too were also recorded along with a great deal of EVP (Electronic Voice Phenomenon) and video footage that needs to be analysed further by the team. Of course as always, the team will thoroughly look at all other possibilities to these so called paranormal occurrences; but as a whole the S.I team could not rule out that they may have indeed encountered a wide array of first hand paranormal activity during their time spent at this location on 'All Hallow's Eve'.

This location will feature in the forthcoming book titled 'Haunted Plymouth' by Kevin Hynes which is published by the History Press due for release in June 2010 - The publication will also include many other spine chilling accounts and sinister tales previously witnessed by those unfortunate to come face to face with the supernatural side of Plymouth!!
